

What makes us unique?

We make it personal. Are you tired of talking to someone new every time you call your discovery company? Feel like your files are forgotten? At Legal Discovery Associates, we purposely maintain a small client base and assign you a case manager so we can focus all of our attention on your firm.

We have the technology others' don't. Do you ever feel like your office has become one big filing cabinet? We've developed innovative ways to reduce your paperwork while still providing complete and expedient copies.

We keep it local. Why would you call a company in San Diego when the records you need are in San Jose? Our Bay Area branches allow us to keep close contact with our firms, giving you the speedy service you deserve.

Because you deserve a company as unique as yours.
